

CELEBRATING ETHOS

SPIRIT OF THE COMMUNITY

5.30 TO 7.15PM
THURSDAY
15 DECEMBER 2011

ACT LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY
RECEPTION ROOM
AND AROUND THE ETHOS SCULPTURE IN CIVIC SQUARE

“As the creator of the sculpture ‘Ethos’ it was my hope that she would inspire the people with the value and importance of community.

She expresses the yearnings of the time in which peace and reconciliation are central.” — Tom Bass (1916 – 2010)

A Chorus of Women often includes Ethos in community events for peace and caring for the Earth.

A CHORUS OF WOMEN INVITES YOU TO A CEREMONY, STORIES AND SONGS IN COMMUNITY CELEBRATION OF THE 50th BIRTHDAY OF ETHOS, CANBERRA’S FIRST PUBLIC ART WORK
Stories from Tom Bass’s wife Margo Hoekstra and his friend Glenda Cloughley plus ABC TV news coverage from the stormy unveiling of Ethos on 15 December 1961

In the spirit of community this celebration is jointly sponsored by MLAs from all three parties in the ACT Legislative Assembly —

Katy Gallagher, Chief Minister

Vicki Dunne, Shadow Minister for the Arts

Caroline Le Couteur, Greens spokesperson for Arts and Heritage

see www.chorusofwomen.org for more information

a chorus of women